

Opinion 572

Published on District of Utah (<https://www.utb.uscourts.gov>)

Opinion Title: 02/05/2014 PUBLISHED In re Akbarian , 12-21670, Judge Thurman.

Body: The Court approved the Debtor's waiver of her chapter 7 discharge, concluding that it met the statutory requirements of § 727(a)(10) and was voluntary, knowing, informed, and made with awareness of the consequences of foregoing a discharge in bankruptcy. As a consequence, the Court granted the Debtor's request to dismiss two consolidated denial of discharge adversary proceedings, which were rendered moot by the waiver. In approving the waiver and dismissing the adversary proceedings, the Court overruled the objections of the Chapter 7 Trustee and two creditors, who had filed the adversary proceedings. The Court concluded that the objecting parties had not raised concerns sufficient to deny approval of the Debtor's waiver.
